

French Summer Camp 2003

Les Îles de-la-Madeleine, Québec Residential camp

L'Istorlet Centre Nautique is a wonderful facility located on the southern side of the island of Havre-Aubert, Îles de-la-Madeleine, Quebec. The six- day residential camp for grades 7-9 immersion students will provide a full schedule of exciting activities featuring ; sailing, kayaking, snorkeling, windsurfing, bird watching, canoeing, theater and MUCH more.

One of the great features of this camp is that campers will share the facility with francophone students from Quebec. This is a unique experience for your children to live the French language and culture of the Îles de-la-Madeleine. Come to the Magdalen by ferryboat which leaves from Souris, P.E.I.

Date : August 3-9 / 2003
Price : $305.00 + taxes (15%)
Age : 12-14 years

Les îles de-la-Madeleine, Quebec Sea kayaking, Adventure Camp

This six- day wilderness adventure camp is being offered to immersion students 15 years and over. Applicants will be considered as space permits. Camp participants should know how to swim and must be willing to work toward a common team goal. The campers will be accompanied by the professional staff of l'Istorlet.

Activities include overnight camping along the wonderful coast, visiting caves and tunnels, bird and seal watching, clam digging and much more. Your children will come back home with wonderful memories.

Date : July 20-26 /2003
Price : $400.00 + taxes (15%)
Age : 15-17 years

*To receive a camp registration form or more information, call the CPF New Brunswick office at 1-877-273-2800. A chaperone, help with cost of ferry and transportation from ferry to camp will be provided for CPF member's children.