Immersion

The first day of camp is an orientation day with instructions and rules outlined in English, after which the camp is conducted entirely in French. Support and assistance to aid the camper's vocabulary will be continuous. Activities on all 3 days include instruction in horseback riding and canoeing, swimming, sports, games and campfires.

Camp Fees

Camp fees cover part of the cost of camp for your child. The balance comes from the New Brunswick Department of Education, Canadian Parents for French N.B. and the Department of Canadian Heritage. Spaces are limited and will be allotted in order received.

About CPF

Canadian Parents for French is a national association of dedicated parents who work together to promote and create opportunities for young Canadians to learn and use French as a second language. By joining our organization you show support for French Second Language learning and this ensures that programs such as the French Summer Camps, Le Concours d'art oratoire, Rendez-vous, Cultural events, book exchanges, etc.. can continue to be offered to our children.

Why Join CPF?

- To give visible support for an organization that is working on behalf of your children
- To help provide opportunities for your child to learn and use French outside the classroom
- To help keep good programs in place and improve where necessary
- To have access to the latest information and publications about French Second Language education, including receiving three to four provincial and national newsletters annually
- To find out how you can help your child learn French
